

Google Chrome Gallery Developer Agreement

Definitions

Google: Google Inc., a Delaware corporation with principal place of business at 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, United States.

Developer or You: Any person or company who is registered to develop Products for publication and distribution on the Gallery in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

Gallery: The Google Chrome gallery site operated by Google, where Developers can publish Products for direct distribution to users of Google Chrome.

Products: Software, content and digital materials created for use in connection with Google Chrome and distributed via the Gallery.

1. Introduction

The Gallery is a publicly available site on which Developers can publish Products for distribution and use in connection with Google Chrome. In order to publish Products on the Gallery, you must acquire and maintain a valid Google account.

2. Accepting this Agreement

2.1 Your use of the Gallery to distribute Products is governed by a legal agreement between you and Google consisting of the Google Chrome Terms of Service (found at http://www.google.com/chrome/intl/en/eula_text.html) and this Google Chrome Gallery Developer Agreement (together, the "Agreement"). In order to use the Gallery to distribute Products, you must first agree to this Agreement by clicking to accept where this option is made available to you. You may not publish Products on the Gallery if you do not accept this Agreement.

2.2 You may not use the Gallery and may not enter into this Agreement if you are (a) not of legal age to form a binding contract with Google, or (b) a person or entity barred from using Google Chrome software under the laws of the United States or other countries including the country in which you are resident or from which you use the Google Chrome software.

2.3 You represent and warrant that you have full power, capacity, and authority to accept this Agreement. If you are agreeing to be bound by this Agreement on behalf of your employer or other entity, you represent and warrant that you have full legal authority to bind your employer or such entity to this Agreement. If you do not have the requisite authority, you may not accept the Agreement or use the Gallery on behalf of your employer or other entity.

3. Support

You will be solely responsible for support and maintenance of your Products and any complaints about your Products. Your support contact information will be displayed in each application detail page and made available to users for customer support purposes.

Failure to provide adequate support for your Products may result in low Product ratings, less prominent product exposure, or in some cases removal from the Gallery.

4. Use of the Gallery by You

4.1 Except for the license rights granted by you in Section 5 below, Google agrees that it obtains no right, title or interest from you (or your licensors) under this Agreement in or to any of Products, including any intellectual property rights which subsist in those applications.

4.2 You agree to use the Gallery only for purposes that are permitted by (a) this Agreement and the Google Chrome Gallery Program Policies https://chrome.google.com/extensions/intl/en/program_policies.html and (b) any applicable law, regulation or generally accepted practices or guidelines in the relevant jurisdictions (including any laws regarding the export of data or software to and from the United States or other relevant countries).

4.3 You agree that if you use the Gallery to distribute Products, you will protect the privacy and legal rights of users. If the users provide you with, or your Product accesses or uses, user names, passwords, or other login information or personal information, you must make the users aware that the information will be available to your Product, and you must provide legally adequate privacy notice and protection for those users. Further, your Product may only use that information for the limited purposes for which the user has given you permission to do so. If your Product stores personal or sensitive information provided by users, it must do so securely and only for as long as it is needed. But if the user has opted into a separate agreement with you that allows you or your Product to store or use personal or sensitive information directly related to your Product (not including other products or applications) then the terms of that separate agreement will govern your use of such information. If the user provides your Product with Google Account information, your Product may only use that information to access the user's Google Account when, and for the limited purposes for which, the user has given you permission to do so.

4.4 Prohibited Actions.

4.4.1 You agree that you will not engage in any activity with the Gallery, including the development or publication of Products or other materials, that violates the Google Chrome Gallery Program Policies, or that:

1. knowingly violates a third party's terms of service,
2. violates any applicable laws or regulations,
3. interferes with, disrupts, damages, harms, or accesses in an unauthorized manner the machines, hardware, devices, servers, networks, data, or other properties or services of any third party including, but not limited to, Google Chrome users, Google or any network operator, or
4. creates a spammy user experience, whether by posting repetitive content or misleading information about an application's purpose,
5. infringes on the intellectual property rights of others,
6. enables the unauthorized download of streaming content or media,
7. displays (via text, images, video, or other media) or links to:
 - I. illegal content,
 - II. invasions of personal privacy or violations of the right of publicity,
 - III. content that interferes with the functioning of any servers, networks, or services of other parties,
 - IV. promotions of hate or incitement of violence,
 - V. violations of intellectual property rights, including patent, copyright (see Google's DMCA policy), trademark, trade secret, or other proprietary right of any party,
 - VI. any material not suitable for persons under 18, or
 - VII. pornography, obscenity, nudity, or sexual activity.

4.4.2 You agree not to access (or attempt to access) the Gallery by any means other than through the interface that is provided by Google, unless you have been specifically allowed to do so in a separate agreement with Google.

4.4.3 You may not divert users or provide links to any other site that mimics the Gallery or passes itself off as the Gallery. For the avoidance of doubt, you may offer Products as access points to paid services for which customers have registered and provided payment information.

4.4.4 Your Product may not use or include the NPAPI plug-in unless you obtain Google's prior permission for such use.

4.5 You agree that you are solely responsible for (and that Google has no responsibility to you or to any third party for) any Products you publish in the Gallery and for the consequences of your actions (including any loss or damage which Google or any third party may suffer) by doing so.

4.6 You agree that you are solely responsible for (and that Google has no responsibility to you or to any third party for) any breach of your obligations under this Agreement, any applicable third party contract or terms of service, or any applicable law or regulation, and for the consequences (including any loss or damage which Google or any third party may suffer) of any such breach.

4.7 Product Ratings. The Gallery will allow users to rate Products. Along with other factors, Product ratings may be used to determine the placement of Products on the Gallery with higher rated Products generally given better placement, subject to Google's right to change placement at Google's sole discretion. For new Developers without Product history, Google may use or publish performance measurements such as uninstall rates to identify or remove Products that are not meeting acceptable standards, as determined by Google. Google reserves the right to display Products to users in a manner that will be determined at Google's sole discretion.

Your Products may be subject to user ratings to which you may not agree. You may contact Google if you have any questions or concerns regarding such ratings at <http://groups.google.com/group/chromium-extensions/>.

4.8 Marketing Your Product. You will be responsible for uploading your Products to the Gallery, providing required Product information to users, and accurately disclosing the security permissions necessary for the Product to function on user machines, hardware, or other devices. Products that are not properly uploaded will not be published in the Gallery.

5. License Grants

5.1 You grant to Google and its affiliates a worldwide, nonexclusive, and royalty-free license to host, link to, copy, translate, publicly perform, publicly display, test, distribute and otherwise use the Products and any content contained in, accessed by, or transmitted through the Products according to the publishing options selected by you on the Product upload page of the Gallery.

5.2 You grant to the user a non-exclusive, worldwide, and perpetual license to perform, display, and use the Products and any content contained in, accessed by, or transmitted through the Products in connection with Google Chrome. If you choose, you may include a separate end user license agreement (EULA) in your Product that will govern the user's rights to the Products in lieu of the previous sentence.

5.3 Google may use consultants and other contractors in connection with the performance of obligations and exercise of rights under this agreement, provided that such consultants and contractors will be subject to the same obligations as Google. After termination of this Agreement, Google will not distribute your Product, but may retain and use copies of the Product for support of the Gallery, Google Chrome extensions, and Google Chrome.

5.4 You represent and warrant that you have all and will maintain all necessary rights to grant the licenses to the Products and any content contained in, accessed by, or transmitted through the Products to Google, its affiliates, and users of your Products.

5.5 Except for the license rights granted in this Agreement, (a) you retain all rights in the Products; and (b) each party retains all rights it would have independent of this Agreement, including rights under the U.S. Copyright Act or analogous laws in other jurisdictions. Google acknowledges and agrees that it obtains no right, title or interest from you (or your licensors) under this Agreement in or to any content that you submit, post, transmit or display on, or through, the Products, including any intellectual property rights which subsist in that content (whether those rights happen to be registered or not, and wherever in the world those rights may exist). Unless you have agreed otherwise in writing with Google, you agree that you are responsible for protecting and enforcing those rights and that Google has no obligation to do so on your behalf.

6. Brand Features and Publicity.

6.1 "Brand Features" means the trade names, trade marks, service marks, logos, domain names, and other distinctive brand features of each party, respectively, as owned (or licensed) by such party from time to time.

6.2 Each party shall own all right, title and interest, including without limitation all intellectual property rights, relating to its Brand Features. Except to the limited extent expressly provided in this Agreement, neither party grants, nor shall the other party acquire, any right, title or interest (including, without limitation, any implied license) in or to any Brand Features of the other party. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Developer grants to Google and its affiliates a limited, non-exclusive license during the term of this Agreement to display Developer Brand Features for use in connection with the Gallery and in order to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement gives Developer a right to use any of Google's trade names, trademarks, service marks, logos, domain names, or other distinctive brand features.

6.3 Publicity. Google and its affiliates may include Developer Brand Features, screenshots, videos, and demonstrations of your Products and any content contained in, accessed by, or transmitted through the Products in presentations, marketing materials, marketing events, developer events, financial reports, website listings (including links to your website), press releases, and customer lists (which includes, without limitation, customer lists posted on Google web sites) for purposes of marketing the Google Chrome Gallery, Google products and services, or publicizing your Product. Google grants to Developer a limited, non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to use the Google Chrome Brand Features for the Term of this Agreement solely for marketing purposes and only in accordance with the Google Chrome Brand Guidelines located at <https://chrome.google.com/extensions/intl/en/branding.html>).

7. Product Takedowns, Review, and Updates.

7.1 Your Takedowns. You may remove your Products from future distribution via the Gallery at any time, but you must comply with this Agreement for any Products distributed through the Gallery. Removing your Products from future distribution via the Gallery does not (a) affect the license rights of users who have previously downloaded your Products or (b) remove your Products from user machines, hardware, or other devices, or from any part of the Gallery where previously downloaded applications are stored on behalf of users.

7.2 Google Review and Takedowns. While Google is not obligated to monitor the Products or their content, Google may at any time review or test your Products and their source code for compliance with this Agreement, the Google Chrome Gallery Program Policies, and any other applicable terms, obligations, laws, or regulations, and may use automated means to conduct such review. Google retains the right to refuse to include a Product on the Gallery in its sole discretion. You may be required to provide information about yourself (such as identification or contact details) as part of the registration process for the Gallery, or as part of your continued use of the Services. You agree that any information you give to Google will always be accurate, correct and up to date. As part of the specification for your Product, Google may ask that you include in the file for your Product information such as your name and email address. Google may use this information when featuring the Product in our directory or for other uses. If Google is notified by you or otherwise becomes aware and determines in its sole discretion that a Product or any portion thereof or your Brand Features; (a) violates the intellectual property rights or any other rights of any third party; (b) violates any applicable law or is subject to an injunction; (c) is pornographic, obscene or otherwise violates Google's hosting policies or other terms of service as may be updated by Google from time to time in its sole discretion; (d) is being published or distributed by you improperly; (e) may create liability for Google or any third party; (f) is deemed by Google to have a virus or is deemed to be malware, spyware or have an adverse impact on Google's or a third party's network; (g) violates the terms of this Agreement or the Google Chrome Gallery Program Policies; or (h) the display of the Product is impacting the integrity of Google servers (i.e., users are unable to access such content or otherwise experience difficulty), Google may prevent the Product from being made available in the Gallery, remove the Product from the Gallery, remotely disable or remove the Product from user systems or devices, or flag, filter, modify related materials (including but not limited to descriptions, screenshots, or metadata), or reclassify the Product at its sole discretion. If you have any questions or concerns regarding a removal, you may contact us at <http://groups.google.com/group/chromium-extensions/>. Google reserves the right to suspend or bar any Product from the Gallery at its sole discretion.

7.3 From time to time, Google Chrome may check for available updates to Products, including but not limited to bug fixes or enhanced functionality. If you upload an update for your Product to the Gallery, you agree that such update will be automatically requested, downloaded, and installed without further notice to you. Google makes no guarantees regarding the timing of such updates. For the avoidance of doubt, updates to Products are subject to the same terms and conditions as the Products, including without limitation Section 7.2 of this Agreement (Google Review and Takedowns).

8. Your Developer Credentials

8.1 You agree that you are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of any developer credentials or developer keys that may be issued to you by Google or which you may choose yourself and that you will be solely responsible for all applications that are developed under your developer credentials.

8.2 Google may limit the number of Products that you or the company or organization you work for may publish to the Gallery.

8.3 Google, at its sole discretion, may suspend or terminate your right to publish Products on the Gallery for any reason, including but not limited to: (a) violation of the Agreement or the Google Chrome Gallery Program Policies, or (b) infringement upon any intellectual property rights, including copyright. For more information on Google's copyright policies, please see here.

9. Privacy and Information

9.1 In order to continually innovate and improve the Gallery, Google may collect certain usage statistics from the Gallery and user machines, devices, or other hardware, including but not limited to, information on how the Gallery and Products are being used.

9.2 The data collected is examined in the aggregate to improve the Gallery for users and Developers and is maintained in accordance with Google's Privacy Policy. To ensure the improvement of Products, limited aggregate data may be available to you upon written request.

10. Terminating this Agreement

10.1 This Agreement will continue to apply until terminated by either you or Google as set out below.

Google will also post a notification on the Gallery site describing the modifications made. The changes will become effective, and will be deemed accepted by you, (a) immediately for those who become Developers after the notification is posted, or (b) for pre-existing Developers, the modified Agreement will become effective upon your acceptance of the modified Agreement (except changes required by law which will be effective immediately) or 7 days after the posting of the notification if you continue to use the Gallery services.
